

Hugo Till

hugo.till@nuffield.ox.ac.uk | +44 7766242797

EDUCATION

University of Oxford (Nuffield College) 2024-

DPhil Politics: Political Theory

University of Oxford (Hertford College) 2022-24

MPhil Politics (Political Theory): Distinction

- Thesis: Legitimacy Beyond the State: The Case of Social Media (75)
- Contemporary Political Philosophy (80) – Highest in Cohort
- Reasonable Disagreement and Political Argument (75) – Highest in Cohort

University of Oxford (The Queen's College) 2018-21

BA Philosophy, Politics, and Economics: First Class Honours

AWARDS

Arts and Humanities Research Council – Nuffield College Studentship: full DPhil funding (2024-)

Crankstart Graduate Scholarship: full MPhil funding (2022-24)

Sir John Hicks Scholarship, for outstanding performance in economics (2020)

Michel Scholarship, The Queen's College, University of Oxford (2019-21)

PRESENTATIONS

- 'Social Media as Private Government', Princeton Graduate Conference in Political Theory (April 2024)

TEACHING

St Catherine's College, Oxford; Hertford College, Oxford September 2024-

College Lecturer in Moral and Political Philosophy

- Moral Philosophy: I teach first-year undergraduate tutorials on JS Mill's 'Utilitarianism', covering the following topics: Pleasure and Wellbeing; Forms of Consequentialism; Justice and Rights; Integrity and Character
- Theory of Politics: I teach second and third-year undergraduate tutorials in the following topics: Rawls on Justice; Injustice, Libertarianism, Equality, Freedom, Political Obligation, Perfectionism and Neutrality, Democracy, and Global Justice

Opportunity Oxford; UNIQ, University of Oxford July 2024-

Lecturer in Political Theory

- Led seminars and delivered tutorials in political theory for students enrolled in OppOx and UNIQ, university-run programmes for prospective applicants and offer-holders from under-represented backgrounds to help them to bridge the gap between school and university
- Solely designed a syllabus for an intensive introductory course in Political Theory for OppOx Students

Hertford College International Programmes July 2024

Lecturer in Philosophy, Politics and Economics

- Presented introductory lectures in philosophy, politics and economics to international students enrolled in summer courses at Hertford College, Oxford.

Carfax Education

October 2021 - July 2022

Tutor

- Full time professional tutor for GCSE and A-Level Maths, English, Economics and Politics, delivering 25 hours of both after-school and homeschooling tuition per week.
- Designed and delivered holiday extension courses on topics such as the Economics and Politics of Climate Change, and the Ethics of AI.

POLICY

Institute for Historical Justice and Reconciliation, The Hague

June-July 2023

Summer Policy Intern

- Wrote and Published a policy report on the contestation of slave-trader Edward Colston's statue in Bristol as part of their 'Contested Histories in Public Places' project, to help decision-makers navigate similar controversies.

The Intergenerational Foundation

August-September 2020

Summer Research Intern

- Formulated the thinktank's contribution to the Comprehensive Spending Review consultation, centring policies that could tackle the disparate intergenerational impact of climate change and the COVID-19 pandemic, such as wealth taxation and lowering the voting age to 16.
- Designed briefing documents to summarise our policies for key stakeholders.

INTERESTS

Music

- Choral Scholar at the Queen's College (2018-21) and Merton College, Oxford (2022-), touring internationally, broadcasting regularly on BBC Radio and recording yearly CDs.
- Led the Queen's College Jazz Band, organizing termly jazz nights.
- Performed in the English Touring Opera's Production of Britten's 'A Midsummer Night's Dream', and in professional productions of Britten's 'Noye's Fludde' and 'St. Nicholas'